

What is my level?

All new students must take a placement test before they start.
You can take the test in advance online, or on your first day.
The test checks your level in grammar, writing, listening and speaking.

After the test we will tell you your level.