

Can I use the internet in school?

Of course! The school has lots of computers for students to use, in our computer room and in the self-study centre. There is a fast internet connection for all of them. They are free. We also have wi-fi access, so you can connect with your own laptop.